What the Lodges Are Doing

Old Time Members Given Big Welcome

It is always nice to have lodge members who live in other parts of the country either drop in personally or keep the lodge posted by means of the odd letter. The other evening Bro. Ronnie Greer, a resident of Cannon Beach, Ore., visited his old lodge, Alberta No. 1, Calgary, and renewed acquaintances. Should anyone be driving down the Oregon coast road below Astoria, and have car trouble, Ronnie is the boy to see.

Our Vice Grand of a few years ago, Bro. Don Schoening, who joined the R.C.A.F. during his term of office and was unable to complete it, also was on hand the same night with the information that he hoped to soon be out of uniform. Then again, Bro. Clyde Lester, with the photographic evidence of the big salmon that did not get away, resumed his place in the lodge after a fishing trip on the west coast.

An old time member, Bro. Billy Greave, Napanee, was around on several occasions and particularly interested in his former friends. Visitors from other lodges whom the writer can recall were, Bros. J. C. Birkett, Maywood, Calif., and K. Larbee, Wallaceburg, Ont. By the way, if you have not experienced a No. 1 welcome to visitors, try it sometime. You may even take the idea home with you to your own lodge.

On the subject of letters, our Brother Jack Perrin, Tatamagouche, N.S., is fairly consistent. Accompanying one of his epistles was a package of something that has the odor of eating tobacco but could be stumping powder from the appearance of the stick. Test will be made and a full report later.

Representatives to Grand Lodge a few years ago may remember Bro. Bob Rackham. Bob now resides at Lansing P.O., Ont., where according to his own admission, the winter activities are reduced to carrying out ashes and keeping an eye on the coal bin. The long winter evenings are brightened by the arrival of the Alberta Odd Fellow. The pages are scanned for the latest information regarding Bro. Archie Sheffield's tunnel under Bro. Bert Woods' grocery store or if Bro. Fred Hodges has been able to raise anything but hopes on the noggin of the scribe for No. 1. Sure it is horse-play but still Bob devoted one page of a three-page letter joining in on the fun.

Speaking of horse play, did you ever attend a meeting of one of the oldest and most respected service clubs in Calgary and eat your luncheon backwards, starting with ice cream and finishing with soup, or to another of the Johnny-come-lately variety and have the tail-yanker shake a tin-can under the nose of your host with the admonition, "Chipmunk Pete, where is your button?" All the foregoing and plenty more to the tune of six-bits or a buck per luncheon and two hours shot in the middle of the day. Maybe the old fraternities could use a touch of hooey or horse-play to bring them up to date and add the necessary ostentation. Charge your lodge dues up to advertising and write a voucher for the meals, etc., and watch the income tax bounce it back at you. T'aint done?

This lodge responded to an invitation from Hillhurst No. 46 to confer the second degree on five candidates from High River No. 22 and one from Bassano No. 59. A mixed team of Hillhurst members and visitors conferred the third degree at the same meeting. Hillhurst's pool table and one-armed mechanical bandit are still ante-room attractions. The No. 46 scribe was crooked up that evening, and the No. 1 correspondent had the 'flu coming on, so everything passed off without incident.

Said 'flu was also responsible for the absence of the recording secretary from the meeting of Nov. 2. Enquiring friends have advised that if this should happen very often, a new secretary will be found and the old one packed off to the fox farm with the old horses.

Members Welcomed, Home from the Wars

I must apologize for not writing a few lines before this, and if it is not too late in the season I would like to congratulate you, Mr. Editor, on the very fine attempt you have made in bringing this paper before the membership of the province.

Namayo Lodge No. 47, I.O.O.F., Edmonton, still is on the map, struggling along like many more lodges, but now that we have started fall and winter activities it seems as if we were due for a new lease of life.

In the first place, I would like, on behalf of the membership, to welcome back some of our boys from overseas. We have with us Bro. Norman Caine, who has already accepted office as Warden, and last meeting, who should drop in (cold as it was), but Bro. Graham Yates. During my travels around town who should I run into but Bro. Elmer Falk, just recently arrived. To those brothers we say thanks a million for a job well done.

Bro. J. A. McLeod is still overseas, and according to a recent letter, may be there for some time. We have two members, long standing, faithful members at that, sick at the present time, Bro. John Gow in the Royal Alex hospital, progressing slowly after an operation, and Bro. Thos. Houston at his home.

If this should catch the eye of any of our members who have been a little lax in attending our meetings, how about coming out some night and giving our new arrivals as mentioned above a real welcome. They deserve it and we need your help. I am hoping that before very long we will be calling upon our degree captain to assemble a team to confer degrees on a brother by transfer.

Congratulations to our present N.G., Bro. T. F. Covlin, who, I understand, is the nominee for D.D.G.M. of District No. 29.—D.P.R.

Lethbridge Lodge Plans Busy Season

It has been some time since the activities of Lethbridge Lodge No. 2 have been reported in the Alberta Odd Fellow.

First we all want to congratulate our new editor for the wonderful paper that he is putting out, and we all agree that it deserves our mutual support.

Although the activities of Lodge No. 2 have not been reported in the Odd Fellow, it is not because we had nothing to report, in fact this lodge has been very busy.

In January we had a joint installation with Viaduct Lodge No. 53, and this was ably conducted by D.D.G.M. A. E. Dupen. His staff officers were made up of officers of both lodges.

Three applications were received during February. These were from Bros. S. Allison, A. R. Niven and A. Baxter. We also had the initiatory degree put on by all veteran members, when Bro. Niven received this degree.

During February this lodge received a great shock in the death of Bro. J. Cooper, who was killed at the Lethbridge Collieries No. 8 mine. Also the death of Bro. J. Niven, who was one of the oldest members of this lodge, who passed away at his home in Kimberley, B.C.

During the month a Ladies' Night was held. The guests of honor were our one and only Bro. Tom Niven and his wife. Bro. Niven had just retired from active business, and on top of this had completed 55 years as a member of this Order. Bro. Niven is one of the original members of Lodge No. 2.

A banquet was enjoyed during the evening, and Bro. Niven and his wife were presented with a large silver tray, the presentation speech being read by Bro. Morden.

During March the lodge was very busy putting on degree work. Mountain View Lodge No. 4, at Macleod, extended an invitation to us to journey to Macleod and confer the initiatory degree on five new members. The invitation was accepted with pleasure and about six carloads of members of this lodge proceeded to Macleod. After lodge closed the amount of food consumed by this lodge was unbelievable, with the result that the springs on the cars going home did not function properly.

I could keep on writing about the activities of the lodge during the past ten months, but it would take up too much space. However, no report is complete unless a few bouquets are thrown out. Special mention should be made of our worthy Noble Grands, Bro. J. Garrett, and Bro. R. Allison, who is our present N.G. Our degree captain, Bro. R. B. Morden, certainly has some praise coming to him. He is always willing and ready to put on degree work. Next is the chairman of the entertainment committee, Bro. A. Watson, and his committee, who had one night a month set aside for entertainment, and they certainly made good use of it.

One of the highlights of the summer was a picnic for the children, but if you were to ask anyone who was there, I am sure they would say they enjoyed it as much, if not more, than the children did.

We have now started our fall activities and have three applications on hand and more are being lined up for the winter, so it seems we are in for a busy season. We all sincerely hope so, as this is the way to keep members attending, and advance the work of the world's greatest order.

As you will see, Mr. Editor, we have not been idle, and if some member of the lodge had been on his toes all the news would have been sent in at the proper time, but it was left to yours truly, who was double-crossed by the Grand Treasurer, Bro. G. W. Henderson who, while paying us a visit during the Good and Welfare of our meeting, said the job of making reports to the Odd Fellow should be left in the hands of the recording secretary. I would personally make the suggestion that each lodge should appoint a reporter. If Bro. Henderson has any more good ideas like putting more work onto the recording secretary, I would suggest he leave them at Calgary. We hope that he pays us another visit soon.

Last but not least is the welcoming home of our brother Odd Fellows from overseas, and seeing them attending their old lodge again. We have had two of our brothers return—Jack Hill and U. L. Koenen.—J.M.M.

Farewell Gifts for Three Odd Fellows

At the regular meeting of Three Hills I.O.O.F. No. 112, October 11, going away gifts were bought for Bro. L. Robertson, who now makes his home in Edmonton, Bro. R. Robertson, who now resides at Calgary, and Bro. Meston, who is living at Drumheller.

Bro. Meston was present and the Noble Grand presented him with a three-link tie-pin set with pearls. Bro. Meston, who is our vice grand, thanked the lodge for the gift and we are very happy to say that although he is not living among us now he still intends to carry on his duties with our lodge. His work enables him to be in town long enough to do so.

The Brothers Robertson having already moved, the secretary was instructed to write them enclosing the gifts.—E.N.E.

Hillhurst Lodge Is Host to 80 Members

Time once again to report the doings of that lively lodge, Hillhurst No. 46, north of the Bow. We have had one or two extra good meetings since the last write-up. Foremost of these was the meeting of October 25, when we were hosts to some 80 members of the order. Among the lodges represented were Alberta No. 1, St. George's No. 39, High River No. 22, Bassano No. 59, and Sandstone No. 17. There may have been other lodges represented, but the hall was so full I may have missed them. My apologies to them if that is so. It was a real bang-up, interesting evening, like the ones we used to have some years ago and which are becoming more frequent now. The second and third degrees were conferred on five candidates from High River No. 22, and one from Bassano No. 59, Alberta No. 1 conferring the second degree and St. George's No. 39 the third. Both degrees were put on in a first class manner and were a credit to their degree captains.

The candidates were greatly impressed with the lesson of these degrees according to remarks overheard by this correspondent. Following the degrees, refreshments were served in the lower hall. Owing to the rationing situation, the social committee were unable to put on as good a spread as they wished, but they managed to scare up a few pork and beans for the out-of-town visitors.

On October 18 the social committee, under Bro. Menzies' capable guidance, put on a swell evening for the members, their wives and friends. The first part of the evening was spent in games and fun of various kinds and dancing brought a very enjoyable program to a close.

Bro. Palfrey, D.D.G.M. of District No. 11, is to be complimented on his efforts in getting the members interested in visiting other lodges. It takes quite an effort to break some members away from their home lodge, especially when they have a home and family to look after, but he has accomplished this. The visit to Cochrane, as reported in the last issue of the fraternal press, was the first of these visitations. Monday, Nov. 5, we were to have visited St. George's Lodge, but owing to 13 inches of snow that fell Sunday and Monday the visit was called off for the time being.

I had quite an interesting letter from Bro. George Tutin last week. George is living at Cheekeye, B.C., and although getting on in years, he is still running the post office there. He also said how much he enjoys reading the Alberta Odd Fellow with its news items from the various lodges. We are always glad to hear from brothers residing in different parts of the dominion.

It is with deep regret that I report the passing of one of our oldest members, Bro. Peter Mores. Pete, as he was familiarly known, passed away Oct. 31 at the age of 73. He had been in failing health for a good many years, but despite his sickness he used to take his daily walk in various parts of the city. Our sympathy is extended to those who mourn his passing.

We were also sorry to hear of the passing of a former member of this lodge, Bro. W. C. Young. Bro. Young was a charter member of this lodge and an ardent worker in the order. He held the office of financial secretary and treasurer for a good many years. Our sympathy is also extended to the members of his family.—F.W.H.

Northern Alberta Veterans' Meeting

Attended by 18 members, the 39th regular meeting of the Veteran Odd Fellows' association of Edmonton and Northern Alberta was held in the I.O.O.F. hall, 103rd St., Edmonton, on October 31. Chief Veteran Andy Browning presided.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by the chaplain, Vet. G. A. Smith.

Applications of Bro. C. E. Todd, of Lacombe Lodge No. 12, and Bro. I. W. Olve, of Stettler Lodge No. 32, were read. On the motion of P.C.V., Dave Wilson and G. A. Smith, the applications were accepted and the secretary was instructed to obtain the buttons.

Resignation of P.C.V. T. M. McCalum as financial secretary and treasurer was received. On the motion of P.C.V. Wilson and Vet. McArthur, it was accepted to take effect January, 1946.

P.C.V. G. A. Smith tendered greetings to Chief Veteran A. Browning on his return to health and extended best wishes for the future.

In reply, the Chief Veteran expressed his appreciation of the kindnesses he had received during his illness and his thanks to those who called on him. He had made a trip to the coast and had returned much improved in health. At the coast he met many former members in Edmonton and received a royal welcome from all. At 9:20 p.m. the meeting ended with a prayer by the chaplain, after which the social committee served refreshments and a pleasant hour was spent around the table.

Lodges Will Gather to Burn Mortgage

The day has at last arrived when the hard worked for object has been attained. Through the untiring efforts of the members of Norwood No. 41 and Jewel No. 25, Edmonton, the mortgage on the I.O.O.F. Temple, 112th Ave. and 95th St. has been paid off.

This, of course, calls for a celebration. An invitation is extended to Odd Fellows and Rebekahs to attend a social evening planned by these two lodges on Monday evening, November 26, at 8:30, in the said I.O.O.F. Temple. An interesting program has been arranged, the main feature of which will be the burning of the mortgage by the presiding Noble Grands of the two lodges. Refreshments and a dance will follow.

Sharara Sanctorum To Visit High River

The big news for the month of November is the proposed trip to High River on November 28, for the conferring of the Samaritan degree on several members from Vulcan and perhaps a few more from High River and surrounding district. We hope to make the trip by bus if one can be secured. Here's hoping we'll have a real good turn-out. Those wishing to go should contact Sam. Dr. Bertrand, our registrar. The writer doesn't know if he'll be able to make it or not as Sam. Bertrand is going to endeavor to pull one of his molars on that date and he may be laid up for a week or so.

I wasn't able to get to the meeting of Oct. 24 as I was out looking up hen fruit for the coming season. However, a good turn out was reported, also some of the boys from the south were up. The Zuannas paid a visit after the meeting and according to reports one of them rode our goat.

Well, Samaritans, this is all I have to offer for this time and I hope the boys will turn out in force for the High River trip. The correspondent, C.L.H., from Elston, Sask., is missing from the last issue of the paper. Maybe he was away on holidays or something.

Yours with a mile of smiles.—D.S.

Grand Master Tells Membership Gains

The district meeting of District No. 19, was held in Waskasoo Lodge No. 16, Red Deer, at which Bro. Chas. Fox, Grand Master, attended.

All three lodges of the district, Waskasoo No. 16, Penhold No. 98 and Bowden No. 31 attended in very good numbers, although the weather was very bad, particularly at Bowden, where the roads were terrible, most of the members having to travel by train.

Bro. R. E. Harvey, D.D.G.M., of Waskasoo, presided, and a very good meeting was held. The business of the district was dispensed with in a very business-like manner. Bro. Percy Scott, of Bowden Lodge No. 31, was elected D.D.G.M. for the next term. There was to be a shield competition, but owing to the bad roads some of the competitors were unable to attend and the competition was postponed until installation of officers in Penhold at the first of the year.

Under good and welfare, Bro. Fox, G.M., gave a very interesting address on the increased membership of the lodges of the province, District No. 19 showing an increase of 16 members for the first six months of this year.

The Rebekahs of the district extending north of Red Deer also held their district meeting, with Sister I. Baile, D.D.P., presiding.

During the evening a delegation of the Odd Fellows visited the Rebekahs, which visit was returned later.

Following the closing of the meetings the Rebekahs served a very pleasing supper, about 90 being seated.—R.E.H.

Sonny: "Give me 10 cents worth of castor oil, please."

Druggist: "The tasteless kind?"

Sonny: "Naw, it's for my father."

News From Saskatchewan Lodges

Old Timers' Night at Saskatoon Lodge

On October 11, Miriam and Queen Esther lodges of Saskatoon celebrated the 94th anniversary of the Rebekah degree. They put on a very amusing skit and Past Assembly President Mrs. A. M. Eddy read a very helpful paper, winding up by urging everyone not only to work but to have a very definite aim to work for. Refreshments were served and it proved a very enjoyable evening.

On October 10, Ownna Encampment No. 4, Saskatoon, conferred the Golden Rule and Royal Purple degrees on a group of 13 candidates, six from Humboldt, 100 miles east; five from Rose-town, 100 miles west, and 1 from Davidson, 100 miles south. There were also two reinstatements. Grand Patriarch Geo. Haney of Carmichael, gave a very stimulating address, urging that the Patriarchs live Odd Fellowship not only in the lodge room, but seven days in every week. He congratulated the new members and told them there was a lot of work to be done if they would only get busy and do it. Grand Master John Macklem, K.C., complimented the degree staff and stated how he had enjoyed the Royal Purple degree.

On October 15, Saskatoon Lodge No. 29 put on an "Old Timers' Night." There was a good attendance, with six members from out-of-town lodges. Bro. Reid, who recently moved to Saskatoon, was presented with an emblem on behalf of the members of his lodge at Young. The initiatory degree was conferred on three candidates who had just returned from overseas. Afterwards a photo was taken of six members who had just arrived home. Grand Master John Macklem, K.C., spoke and gave a short resume of his recent visits. Refreshments were served and many stories related.—F. F. Bates..

Queen Esther Rebekah Lodge

A successful tea and bazaar was held Saturday in the Hudson's Bay auditorium by Queen Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 5, Saskatoon. Mrs. Ross Brown, N.G., received the large number of visitors and Mrs. D. Buie, P.A.P., and Mrs. J. Ross, P.N.G., had charge of the register and tea tickets. Mrs. H. Greggain, noble grand of Miriam No. 24, and Mrs. D. Hoover, district deputy president, presided over the long tea table draped with a lovely hand-made cloth of lace beautified by autumn shaded flowers and colored lighted tapers. Mrs. L. Jackson, P.N.G., and Mrs. J. Pirie presided over the tea cups during the second period.

The table of attractive practical and fancy goods made by the various circles was attended by Mrs. C. Holding, Mrs. F. Roluf, Mrs. D. Simmonds and Mrs. E. J. Ball. The home cooking was a very popular table and was attended by Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Whyte and Mrs. D. Jewell. The white elephant table was attended by Mrs. H. Fowler and Mrs. W. Shaver and proved very successful. Mrs. C. Curry had a busy time reading tea cups for the pleasure of the guests. Mrs. R. Leighton and Mrs. J. Nichols convened the tea, with members of the lodge as servitors. Miss Lillian Gorman, treasurer, was cashier for the bazaar.

Miriam Rebekah Lodge

At a meeting of Miriam Rebekah Lodge, Saskatoon, plans were made to carry on the patriotic work of the order at Christmas and to visit the old folks in the various convalescent homes in the city.

Conveners were chosen to make arrangements for the annual bazaar and tea to be held December 3 in the Lower Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. W. McVicar was appointed tea room convener, and Mrs. J. Frazer as bazaar convener. At the conclusion of the business West Side-Mayfair Circle entertained with a skit, entitled, "A Day at a Rebekah Clinic," after which refreshments were served.

Odd Fellow Delegates at Humboldt Meeting

A regional meeting of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was held in Humboldt, Sask., on October 17, at which 92 members from various lodges of the district attended.

Hugh A. Green, a Past Grand Master, presided at the sessions, and in his opening remarks spoke on the origin of Odd Fellowship.

E. J. McNab formally welcomed the visiting brethren.

J. Macklem, Grand Master of Saskatchewan, spoke on field work and made certain suggestions to the lodges and how membership might be increased.

Carl Harris, P.G.M., of Elstow, spoke on the Past Grand's charge and urged the brothers to study and practice this charge in their daily lives.

Hugh Green, P.G.M., discussed the Home Fund, which was created in 1907, to care for the needy and orphans of Odd Fellows.

At the evening session, after discussions of interest to Odd Fellows, the Grand Lodge officers were introduced. These included J. Macklem, G.M.; F. C. Gray, Grand Secretary; H. A. Green, P.G.M.; Carl Harris, P.G.M., J. M. Rutherford, D.D.G.M., and E. Wallace, D.D.G.M.

The Humboldt lodge, with W. Barnes, Noble Grand, then took over and three new members were given the initiatory degree, after which addresses were given by F. G. Gray, grand secretary, and Jas. Chrones, of Saskatoon.

Supper was served to the Odd Fellows by the Red Cross ladies, and also a late lunch before the visitors left for their homes.

District Meeting Is Held at Saskatoon

The annual meeting of the Ada Neal District, No. 10, Rebekah Lodge, was held in the I.O.O.F. hall at Saskatoon. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Helen Greggain, who stressed the importance of working together. This was responded to by Miss Ena Anderson of Prince Albert. The delegates each read a report of work done in their particular lodge during the year. Each had done considerable war work and had remembered the men and women in the armed services with parcels and cigarettes.

At the close of the afternoon session a banquet was greatly enjoyed by 75 Rebekahs. Mrs. W. Thomson led community singing accompanied by Mrs. M. Cowan at the piano. In the evening the Rebekah degree was conferred by the officers of Queen Esther lodge.

The assembly president, Mrs. Jean Sadler, gave an inspiring address. She divided her talk into three parts: "How to become a better Rebekah, Goodness and Kindness, and Courage." She said that it must be demonstrated to the enemy that the world was big enough for all and that all must live together like brothers.

The new district officers elected are: President, Miss Ena Anderson, Prince Albert; vice-president, Mrs. Edna Pendleton of Colonsay; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Potter of Prince Albert.

It was decided to hold the district meeting next year in Prince Albert on the first Monday in October.

District Meeting Is Held at Regina

The annual meeting of the Margaret Armstrong District No. 5 was held in Regina in the I.O.O.F. hall on Tuesday, October 16, with Sister Mary E. Burgess, president, in the chair. Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 3, Regina was hostess and the officers and members of the district were extended a hearty welcome by their Noble Grand, Sister Helen Farquier, which was responded to by Sister Gertrude Pettigrew of Lumsden. Sister Pearl Brown, District Deputy President, introduced Sister Jean Sadler, Assembly President, and Sisters Olive Robertson and Edith De Guerre, Past Assembly Presidents, and presented Sister Sadler with a beautiful corsage.

Roll call of lodges was answered by Naomi No. 3, Regina; Lily of the Valley No. 16, Lumsden; Empire No. 43, Regina; Hiawatha No. 84, Kipling; Welcome No. 93, Dilke; Fellowship No. 123, Regina, and Past Noble Grand's Association, Regina. On account of harvesting operations it was not possible for Sunset No. 64, Balgonie, or Ivie Campbell, No. 67, Govan, to be present.

At intervals the education committee led the members in singing, skits and demonstrations which not only relaxed muscles but added merriment to the sessions. While waiting for the judges' return during the competition, Sister Lily Clarke called on 14 members to come up to the front of the hall with her and help demonstrate a famous painting. After much fun she announced the name of this masterpiece, in case no one had guessed it, as "The Gathering of the Nuts."

The members compete each year for the "Edith De Guerre cup" which is for some part of the ritual. This year it was for the secret work and members qualified for Certificates of Perfection at same time as for the cup. Sister Lillian Lough, of Naomi lodge No. 3, was this year's winner, and Sister Jean Sadler presented Sister Lough with the cup.

A splendid supper was served in the hall by the Friendship Circle of Westminster church to members and friends, and a program of skits and community singing was enjoyed.

The Seven-Sister Degree was beautifully conferred on eight candidates by the Past Noble Grand's Association of Regina, with Sister Adeline Thom, their president, in the chair.

Sister Jean Sadler, Assembly President, addressed the meeting on "Rebekah Sisterhood," stressing that to "get the best and most out of the Order we must put the best into it" and strive to attend our meetings regularly, that we need each other.

The newly elected and appointed officers were introduced and seated by Sister Mary Burgess, Past President, and Sister Pearl Brown, District Deputy President, as follows:

President—Sis. Florence Sneddon, Lumsden.
Vice President—Sis. Isabel Morrow, Regina.
Rec. Secretary—Sis. Claire McNally, Lumsden.
Treasurer—Sis. Eva Thurston, Regina.
Warden—Sis. Lily Clarke, Regina.
Conductor—Sis. Irene Fairfield, Regina.
Chaplain—Sis. Emma Wilson, Dilke.
Inside Guardian—Sis. Ethel Devine, Kipling.
Outside Guard—Sis. Alma Lockwood, Regina.
Musician—Sis. Elsie Jarvis, Regina.

Elect Officers of Rebekah District 8

The regular annual meeting of Moose Jaw Rebekah District No. 8 was held in the I.O.O.F. hall, Moose Jaw, on Tuesday, October 23, with Sis. Wright, District President, in the chair. Caron Rebekah Lodge No. 112 was the hostess lodge.

Sister A. Richards, Jr. D.D.P., of Caron introduced Sister J. Sadler, Assembly President, and other Assembly officers.

A short service was held in memory of Sister English, who was District President at the time of her death on May 7, 1945.

Splendid reports were given by the delegates of Olive Branch No. 4, Moose Jaw; Crescent No. 11, Rouleau; Moose Jaw No. 54, Moose Jaw; Royal No. 66, Mortlach; Caron No. 112, Caron; Starlite No. 127, Milestone, and Past Noble Grand's Association, Moose Jaw.

For Starlite lodge it was their first district meeting and their report showed great enthusiasm.

During the evening session an interesting paper portrayed in tableau form, on the history of Queen Esther, was presented by Moose Jaw Lodge No. 54.

The degree was beautifully exemplified by Starlite Rebekah Lodge No. 127 of Milestone.

Sister Sadler, Assembly President, gave an inspirational and helpful address on "How to become a better Rebekah," and Sister Budd, N.G. of Caron, presented Sister Sadler with a lovely gift on behalf of Moose Jaw District No. 8. Officers elected for the coming year were as follows:

President—Sis. Warren, Moose Jaw No. 54.
Vice President—Sis. Drew, Rouleau.
Sec. Treasure—Sis. Keau, Moose Jaw.
Warden—Sis. Elsie Hanson, Rouleau.

Conductor—Sis. E. Thompson, Milestone.
Chaplain—Sis. Nutzhorn, Caron.
Pianist—Sis. Chegivin, Moose Jaw No. 54.
Inside Guardian—Sis. L. Day, Mortlach.
Outside Guardian—Sis. Cochrane, Moose Jaw.

Before the close of the meeting Sister Sadler presented the Webster cup to Sister E. Woodward, who won it for Moose Jaw Lodge No. 54, the competition being the Vice Grand's obligation.

At the close of the session lunch was served by Caron Lodge No. 112 under the convenership of Sister Nutzhorn, Sister A. Hans and Sister Bickford.

President Greeted at North Battleford

Mrs. Jean Sadler, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Saskatchewan, made her official visit to Emerald Rebekah Lodge No. 22, North Battleford, October 9. The president was introduced to the lodge by Miss Connie Tubb, and welcomed by the members of the lodge and by the Noble Grand, Mrs. Landon, who also extended a welcome to visiting lodges represented, and to Mr. Klaehn, who is the only charter member of this order.

On behalf of the members of the Emerald Rebekah lodge, the Noble Grand presented Mrs. Sadler with a corsage of pink roses.

After the business part of the meeting was completed, the newer members of the lodge honored the president by presenting a beautiful pageant, representing the three symbols of the Rebekah lodge — Friendship, Love and Truth—concluding by displaying the letters J-E-A-N to the accompaniment of Scottish airs for the honor of the president, and "V" for the veteran members of the lodge. A contest of guessing song titles silently impersonated by members of the lodge, was enjoyed, as well as a musical number built around the "Gay Nineties" period.

The outside lodges, Wilkie and Unity, were splendidly represented, as were members of the subordinate lodges.

Mrs. Sadler thrilled her audience with her pleasing manner and appropriate address. She first extended greetings from the Rebekah Assembly, and her own lodges from Moose Jaw.

At the present time, Mrs. Sadler began, after six years of war, we have a war-torn world—people think differently—good Rebekahs must endeavor, more than ever, to help, and be an example to the world, by ever keeping in mind Friendship, Love and Truth, in dealing with our fellow men.

Mrs. Sadler expressed the idea that in order to become better Rebekahs, we should bear in mind the Golden Rule, to be silent of good deeds performed, and to keep in mind the idea of Friendship, thus creating an atmosphere of brotherly love. If these rules were observed, a newer, nobler world would survive. She pointed out that we must show the enemy that there is room in the world for all democratic people, and the love and kindness to one another in force would bring a better world into being. This, she felt, would help the broken people in European countries to find liberty and peace. The president pointed out that it was the responsibility of the civilian population to ever keep in mind, and assist, those who mourn for loved ones never to return, to be sympathetic and remember that their sacrifice has made our freedom possible, and all honor to these men and women. Such great courage with no thought of self in danger, must never be forgotten. We, as Rebekahs, should take this as an example for our moral courage—always doing our duty, and doing what is right for the home.

We should remember, the president continued, that life is what we make it. We should study our obligations, and practice them in our daily life, and dedicate ourselves to Friendship, Love and Truth, and so guide our spirit of Love and Truth fraternally.

The candle-lit tables in the banquet room were suitably decorated in the lodge colors, while the head table was centred with a large silver basket of pink carnations.

After the serving of a delicious lunch, our very talented president entertained the guests with two delightful and amusing monologues. Mrs. Landon presented her with a gift, and charmingly expressed the lodges' extreme pleasure and enjoyment of the president's visit.

This outstanding event was also the occasion of the 32nd anniversary of the lodge and the 94th anniversary of the order.

First Conference Since War Started

At the regional conference of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows held in the Odd Fellows' Temple at Moose Jaw, Sask., on Monday, October 8—which was the first conference to be held in the province since the outbreak of war in 1939—some 70 delegates were present from the following lodges within the conference area: Regina, Milestone, Wilcox, Drinkwater, Rouleau, Caron, Mortlach, Tugaske, Lawson, Mawer, Dilke, Balgonie, Woodrow and Moose Jaw.

The afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock with Brother George F. Dawson, Grand Treasurer, of Regina, presiding. Brother John Macklem of Saskatoon, Grand Master, voiced his pleasure at seeing such a large and representative gathering. He told those present that Odd Fellowship was making definite progress in Saskatchewan, and that most of the lodges are really busy.

Addresses were given by Brother W. G. Scott, P.D.D.G.M., Rouleau, on "Programs for Lodge Meetings and Social Activities"; Brother J. K. Renwick, D.D.G.M., Milestone, on "Should members be suspended immediately upon non-payment of dues for one year"; Brother V. C. Farrell, D.D.G.M., Regina, on "Planning and Conducting a Membership Campaign"; Brother P. H. Townsend, H.F. Trustee of Balgonie, on "A Review of Home Fund Work During the Past Year"; Brother E. E. Renwick, P.D.D.G.M., Corinne, on "Improving Degree Work"; and Brother W. J. Barrie, P.D.D.G.M., Tugaske, on "Should Assistance by the Home Fund Board be Discontinued, and passed on to the Municipality."

Each of these addresses was followed by a short and helpful discussion, and a question box was placed in the hall, the questions being answered by the Grand Master at the evening session.

The main feature of the evening session was the conferring of the Third Degree in a most original and inspiring manner by a team composed jointly of members of Valley Lodge No. 1 and Mizpah Lodge No. 93, both of Moose Jaw. About one hundred and forty members were present to witness this very impressive ceremony. Brother Arthur Ward, P.G., of Valley Lodge No. 1, was in charge of the degree staff which received many words of praise for the intricacy and perfection of their floor work and delivery of the ritual charges.

Brother Q. S. Sundstrom, Deputy Grand Master, of Kennedy, gave an address on "Fraternalism and Odd Fellowship," following which the Grand Master presented a twenty-five year Veteran Jewel to Brother James Purvis of Mizpah Lodge No. 93. He also gave a short talk on "The Part Fraternal Societies Have Played in the Lives of Men."

The conference closed with an address by Brother George A. Maybee, P.G., of Moose Jaw, who spoke on the topic, "What Odd Fellowship Can Mean to a Man." Refreshments were served by the Moose Jaw brothers in the banquet hall, during which there were many expressions of appreciation to Brother Dawson for arranging such an outstanding Odd Fellow event.

Membership Drive for Regina Lodge

October was a pretty busy month for Regina Lodge No. 6. On October 15, the initiatory degree was conferred on seven candidates, and again on October 22, on one candidate who was unable to take the degree before. On October 25 the first degree was conferred by Saskatchewan Encampment No. 1 on these eight candidates, and also on five candidates from Queen City Lodge No. 64. On October 29, the second degree was conferred on the candidates of Regina Lodge No. 4 by Queen City Lodge No. 64, and Regina Lodge No. 6 conferred the second degree on candidates of Queen City Lodge No. 64 on November 1. A great spirit of co-operation exists between the Regina lodges and this is most noticeably so when one lodge confers a degree for the other.

The membership drive is still continuing and one more application has been received with others pending. At the present time the team led by Bro. Ennis is in the lead, but there are several dark horses in the hunting and no one has the D.D.G.M.'s prize cinched yet.

It is interesting to note that two of the candidates initiated by this lodge are the husband and son of the present Noble Grand of Fellowship Rebekah Lodge No. 123 of Regina. Further, the Rebekah degree was conferred on the daughter of the same Noble Grand on October 25. In all 26 new members were brought into the Order by the Regina lodges during the month of October, eight by Regina Lodge No. 6, five by Queen City Lodge No. 64, four by Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 3, four by Empire Rebekah Lodge No. 43, and five by Fellowship Rebekah Lodge No. 123. All lodges have other applications pending. Who said that Odd Fellowship is not going ahead in Regina?

The big dance was held in the Trianon in Regina on November 7. Proceeds were set aside towards the building of a new Temple. Saskatchewan Encampment No. 1 has already contributed $19 towards this fund, the proceeds of a little get-together during September.

On reading the Alberta Odd Fellow for October, I notice there was nothing from that "fire eating, hair-raising" correspondent from Elston Lodge No. 138. We presume, and hope, this was due to the harvest season, but if there isn't a write-up in the November issue, we'll think the remarks in the September issue was just another puff of prairie wind. What about it, Carl, you started it.—L.G.N.

REBEKAH ACTIVITIES

Reports Submitted at District Session

A very interesting evening was held on October 16, the date of our regular meeting, by Foothills Rebekah Lodge No. 105, Claresholm, Alta. Our District Deputy President, Sister Bella Grice, was present.

After the regular meeting the D.D.P. took the chair and held the district meeting. Foothills Rebekah Lodge conferred the degree on Mildred Thompson as part of the program of the district meeting.

We were very fortunate in having visitors from Silver Leaf Rebekah Lodge, Stavely, and Mountain View Rebekah Lodge, Macleod. The representatives each brought with them a very interesting report from their lodge of their year's work. After closing the lodge a very delightful lunch was served by the lunch committee.

Rebekah Lodge No. 11 High River, Alberta

Our first meeting in October had a very good attendance. Most members will be very sorry to hear Sister Eyres, P.N.G., had a serious operation, but the late report is she is getting along nicely and hopes to be home soon. I may say Sister Eyres joined the Rebekah lodge at Vancouver in 1905. Since moving to High River both Brother and Sister Eyres have been faithful members of High River I.O.O.F. We hope they may remain with us many more years and hope they will enjoy better health. We wish this grand couple the best of luck.

Sister Ivy Palmer was initiated into membership of this lodge and we welcome her most heartily. After lodge we had a social get-together and refreshments.

We hope after harvest to have our usual large attendance of country brothers and sisters.

The October 25 meeting was well attended and arrangements were completed for of nineteenth annual roll call of I.O.O.F. and Rebekahs. Committees were appointed and we are all looking forward to this big event which takes place Nov. 20.

The last reading of the notice of motion to change the term of office to semi-annual was read and passed by the lodge. After lodge a social evening of cards and Bingo was enjoyed, refreshments being served. The lodge also held a whist drive and social evening November 1. A good time and social get-together was enjoyed by all.—E.C.

Prepare for Visit of Assembly Head

Naomi No. 12, Calgary, is reporting again, just a little late, but better late than never.

Sister Urith Molyneaux is still pinch-hitting for Sister Ethel Barker, N.G.

Degree work is once again to the forefront. Three applications for initiation have been received, also an application by transfer by Sister Baldwin of Medicine Hat.

We are all looking forward to our next meeting when Sister Minnie Gilkes, our President, makes her official visit.

Sister Elsie Taylor and Sister Annie Bannister are convening our next birthday party, to be held at the first meeting in December. A hearty invitation is extended to all to come on down to Naomi and join in the fun.—G.M.

Dominion Lodge Makes Sale Plans

Sister Elizabeth Allison, the newly installed Vice Grand of Dominion 41, Lethbridge, presided at the regular meeting on Sept. 13 in the absence of the Noble Grand who was on vacation.

Plans were made for the annual sale of work which will be held December 1. Sisters Jessie Morden and Helen McNab were appointed to take charge with power to choose their own committee.

Sister Inez Lehman, of Colfax Rebekah Lodge No. 1, Victoria, B.C., was a visitor and expressed her pleasure at meeting so many old friends. Sister Lehman was formerly a member of Faith No. 93, and is in the city owing to the serious illness of both her mother and father.

Brother Uke Koenen has returned from overseas, and with Sister Koenen, who has been living in Victoria, B.C., for the past two years, is spending leave in Lethbridge. He expects to receive his discharge. Their son, Stanley, has also returned from overseas.

It was a pleasure to see Sister Rosewarn at lodge again after her long absence. It takes more than a broken leg to keep "Polly" down. Sister Jane Unsworth, Faith No. 93, was a visitor and the two were sitting together, "comparing notes."

Sister Florence Stafford, D.D.P., has requested that any questions to be asked at the district meeting be handed to the secretary not later than the last meeting in October. How about a little co-operation. Sister Stafford is trying to arrange something interesting but don't "Let George (I mean Florence) do it."—R.M.

Killam Rebekahs on Progress Program

What with the time changing and holidays over, plus the short days, etc., we scarcely get time to jot down the items of interest which have come in our way of progress at Silver Link Rebekah Lodge, Killam. To put it in short form, we began where we left off with a goodly number present just like school and clock making a team out of it. We are endeavoring to carry out the plan, also like the old school slate, it is all cleaned off and ready to chronicle the events of the day as we journey, visiting the sick and carrying on by gifts of fruit and notes by letter and cards. Also, one of our members has done double, yea triple, duty caring for the sick at home and abroad. One sister was alone and another one stayed by her all through the nights, then caring for her own immediate family in days ahead. I tell you, she is a real Rebekah.

There is an effort on foot for a social evening for the returned boys and their friends soon, I believe, in November.

We have begun our sale of Christmas cards to fill the treasury. Our D.D.P. made her plans for the annual district meeting held at Hardisty on Nov. 7.

Now looking forward we still hope to fulfill our mission of love and mercy in helping the subordinate lodge to furnish a room in the local hospital. The project is a big one. We are helping and upholding the staff of same.—N.B.Y.

BOOST YOUR PAPER

Many letters have been received from lodge members in telling of their interest in promoting lodge work. The programs planned or under way indicate that the winter season will be one of extensive activities. There is every reason to believe that all lodges will have good reports to make on their year's work.

The part which the Alberta Odd Fellow can play in this sound growth is readily recognized. It reveals as no other medium can the extent of the widespread work being done in the province in promoting the worthy aims and objects of Odd Fellowship.

Lodges are enabled to record their successes, their hopes and aspirations. This creates interest in their own communities and often acts as an incentive to other lodges to do likewise.

Undoubtedly those who are planning membership drives are fully cognizant of the essential need of promoting support through showing the benefits of Odd Fellowship.

In this work, the Alberta Odd Fellow has a vital role to play. That part it can perform all the more effectively with the support of an ever growing number of subscribers.

Lodge officials can do a lot themselves in pointing to the value of this publication. We hope to see more of this boosting in the months to come.

Frankly, we need and must have more subscribers and the sending in of more lodge notices. The Directory has space for many more lodges to be listed.

This should be a joint effort, designed to build up more support for what is the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs' own publication. Give it all the backing you possibly can and make it the best.

R. A. GODSON, P.G.

Watrous Reports Two Well Attended Meets

Since our last visit with you through this paper, this lodge, Watrous No. 63, Saskatchewan, has enjoyed two very well attended meetings.

On Oct. 17, two car loads of members journeyed to Humboldt to attend the regional meeting. An informal meeting in the afternoon was attended by about 100 visitors. Grand Lodge officers present included G.M. John Macklem, Grand Secretary F. D. Gray, P.G.M.'s C. L. Harris and H. A. Green, D.D.G.M.'s F. E. Wallace and J. M. Rutherford.

The evening session was conducted by Humboldt lodge when they presented the initiatory degree on three candidates. A splendid time was enjoyed by the majority attending, the only criticism encountered being not enough discussion on lodge work and other items re laws and suspensions.

On Nov. 6, Davidson Lodge No. 14 visited the local Odd Fellows Lodge for the purpose of lifting the travelling gavel, with 12 members coming over for the evening. An added feature of the evening was the elimination contest of the local lodge for the right to be its representative at the district meeting in Govan on Monday Nov. 12. Three contestants gave their lectures, namely, Bros. J. L. Reed, E. W. Kirkham and R. E. Preston. The judges for the evening, Bros. Sellers, Van Haerlem and Ketcheson, of Davidson, after paying their due criticism to the contestants, awarded first place to Bro. E. W. Kirkham.

District Meetings

The time of the year has come around when district meetings have become a very important function. A great many districts have already planned to hold their meetings while others are making plans to do so.

This is the meeting which a lodge having difficulties can bring it to the attention of their D.D.G.M.'s. There it can be threshed out, while others have helpful ways that can be given to lodges in a less fortunate position and will thereby benefit your district.

Remember, do not hesitate to approach your D.D.G.M. with any problems that might be giving you trouble. He is an agent for the Grand Master, and while the Grand Lodge officers find it impossible to attend all district meetings, we will try and have representation at as many as possible. Your D.D.G.M. has pledged himself to assist the lodges in his district and report his findings to the Grand Master.

May I say to the D.D.G.M.'s, please carry out your duties as promptly as possible. We have many D.D.G.M.'s who have been keeping themselves right up to date with their work, while others are dragging a bit behind, which makes it bad for the lodges in his district and for the Grand Secretary in his office work.

In selecting your new D.D.G.M.'s be sure and use the best material that you have, one whom you know will be faithful to his duties and the lodges over which he has jurisdiction. Assist him at all times and be ready to co-operate in any way possible for the betterment of the lodges which he is representing.

Fraternally yours,
CHARLES FOX, G.M.

Remembrance Gift Is Given to Member

The regular assembly of the Ladies' Auxiliary to Canton Edmonton No. 1, Patriarch's Militant, was held in the Norwood I.O.O.F. Temple on Thursday, October 11, with Lady Sorenson, Vice-President, in the chair.

Lady and Chev. Browning are spending some time at the coast to regain their health.

During the meeting a gift of remembrance was presented to Lady Stone, who along with Chev. Stone is going to the coast for an indefinite time. We sincerely hope they may return to us soon.

A game of cards was enjoyed after the meeting and lunch was served by the refreshment committee.

Winners at cards included Lady Martin and Chevaliers Sorenson, Alf. Brown and Stone.—C.N.

Grand Warden Is Welcomed by Lodge

Ruth Rebekah Lodge No. 5, Medicine Hat, was honored last lodge night by a visit from Sister Padgett, Grand Warden. After being introduced she was presented with a corsage and a gift. Sister Padgett gave an interesting talk on "Ballot," which left a deep impression, I am sure, on everyone's mind. During the evening the story of Ruth was related by the members as they answered to annual roll call, at the close of which a tableau depicting the story was enacted.

At the close of lodge a lovely lunch was served.—O.B.K.

Plan Anniversary Christmas Party

The regular meeting of Colfax Rebekah Lodge No. 51, Hanna, Alberta, opened in usual form at 8 o'clock, Oct. 3, with Sister L. Davis, N.G., presiding. Sixteen members were present. This being the yearly district meeting, Sister Alice Nash, D.D.P., was introduced to the members by Sister A. Thatcher and given a hearty welcome. During the business several cards of thanks were read, including one from Sister B. Laughlin for flowers received during her recent illness. Sister N. Coad also sent thanks for flowers received while she was a patient at the hospital. The Salvation Army were also grateful for a donation from the lodge during their recent campaign.

It was decided that our anniversary and Christmas party be combined and held during Thursday, December 6, and an invitation will be extended to the Odd Fellows and their wives. We trust that a large number will come out and make this social evening a success.

With most of the ordinary business attended to, N.G. Sister L. Davis retired and Sister Alice Nash, D.D.P., presided. Sister Nash thanked the members for their co-operation during the year.

A school of instruction was then conducted, consisting of questions pertaining to the lodge and its work. During this period also, a part of the lodge work was demonstrated by some of the members.

Sister B. Rennie was then installed in the office of financial secretary as this office was left vacant owing to the departure of our former financial secretary, Sister B. Duncan, who is now at Edmonton. We were also sorry to have to bid farewell to our J.P.N.G., Sister O. Laughlin, who has recently moved to Lethbridge. We wish her happiness in her new place of abode. Sister Nash then called for the election of D.D.P. and secretary for the coming year. Sister A. Thatcher was elected to the office of D.D.P. and Sister M. Maynes, secretary.

Sister Alice Nash, D.D.P., then retired and N.G. Sister L. Davis conducted the lodge until closing.—D.A.S.

Dominion Lodge 41 Aids Childrens Fund

The regular meeting of Dominion Lodge No. 41, Lethbridge, which was held on October 25, started promptly at 8 o'clock and by 8:30 all routine business had been attended to in such a manner as to leave everyone more or less breathless. The reason? . . . a card party in aid of the Crippled Children's Fund had been arranged as our means of celebrating the anniversary of the eRebekah degree.

Seventeen tables of whist were in play and the committee in charge is to be congratulated on the enjoyable evening. A cheque will be going forward very soon. We might add that all the money changing hands at the cribbage game in the "Snake Room" was "confiscated" to add to the total sum.

Prizes for cards were won as follows: Ladies' first, Mrs. N. Goldie; gents' first, Mr. J. Garrett; ladies' second, Mrs. R. Prout; gents' second, Mr. F. Nuttall.

Refreshments were served by the social committee under the convener-ship of Sister Lillian Ferrier. The committee responsible for the evening's entertainment was composed of Sisters Eva Lowe, Jane Henderson and Helen McNab.

During the routine business two applications for membership by initiation were received.

Teas are continuing in connection with the sale of work and Sister Morden is again begging for donations.

Parcels for boys still overseas will be sent as usual. From the letters of thanks received from various boys the committee feels the effort has been well worth while. We understand Sister Madge Campbell's son Billy has returned home. He left here in August, 1939, to take air cadet training in England, and has since served in various fields, including India. Sister Allison's two sons, Alex and Andy, have both recently returned from overseas—R.M.

Warden Is Visitor at Lodge Meeting

Sister Ethelwyn Padgett, Warden of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, was an unofficial visitor at the regular meeting of Dominion Rebekah Lodge No. 41, Lethbridge, on Sept. 27. Sister Padgett was the house guest of Bro. and Sister Unsworth enroute home from visits to lodges in the Medicine Hat district.

Plans were made for a whist party which was held Oct. 25, in commemoration of the anniversary of the Rebekah Degree. All proceeds are in aid of the Crippled Children's fund.

A letter was read from the Grand Lodge Rehabilitation committee and Sisters Morden, Eva Lowe and Ada Davis were appointed to co-operate with other lodges in this work.

Sister Ila Keonen was welcomed back to the meeting after an absence of two years.—R.M.

Veterans Jewels Are Given at Crossfield

At the last regular meeting of Justice Rebekah Lodge No. 62, Crossfield, there was a good attendance of members.

Sister Mae Fox, acting noble grand, extended a gracious welcome to Sister Day, Assembly Secretary, who was paying her official visit.

Parts of the degree were impressively exemplified by the degree staff, under the direction of Sis. Lilley, P.N.G., the captain.

Plans were made for assisting in the program at the district meeting which will be held in Bowden in November.

Sister Fox, P.P., had arranged a pleasing and colorful ceremony for the presentation of veterans jewels, each veteran being escorted to a position forming a "V" in front of the N.G.'s station.

Sister Day addressed the five sisters who were about to receive their jewels, and congratulated them on attaining the rank of Veteran Rebekah, and welcomed them to that rank.

The jewels were then pinned on the members by their own escort. Sister Fox, N.G., expressed the pleasure it gave the lodge to present the jewels on this particular occasion, and how gratifying to have such faithful sisters as members, especially those who had been initiated into Justice Lodge No. 62, and kept up continuous membership.

Sisters Dawson, Smart and Laut received 20-year jewels, and Sisters Richardson and Edlund, 15-year jewels.

These veteran members thanked the lodge for their jewels and said it had been a pleasure to belong to Justice Lodge No. 62.

Sister Day Assembly Secretary, addressed the gathering, bringing to our attention the work of her office and several statistics regarding the Order. Her message was educational and inspiring and enjoyed by everyone.

Sister Oneil, P.N.G., then presented Sister Day with a small token of our love and esteem, to which our secretary capably responded.

A delicious lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.

Sister Day was entertained at the home of Sister and Brother Fox during her stay in Crossfield.

Bow Valley Lodge Reopens for Fall

Bow Valley Rebekah Lodge No. 43, Canmore, held their re-opening meeting after the summer recess on Sept. 26. We were all pleased to meet again and plan our winter activities.

A shower whist drive was held in August for our annual bazaar, and we were very pleased with the result.

The bazaar was held on Oct. 22, opening in the afternoon with tea and a sale of home cooking and fancy goods. In the evening hot dogs were served. There were games and guessing contests.

Sister Cole, P.N.G., a member of our lodge, left Canmore recently owing to Bro. Cole's health. They will live in Calgary on the North Hill.

A surprise farewell party was held at the home of Sister Musgrove. Whist was played and an enjoyable supper was served and Sister Cole was presented with a cheque by Sister Hale, N.G., with a request that she buy something for her new home as a parting gift from the lodge. Sister Cole has been a good member and we shall miss her.

We held our anniversary church parade on Sunday evening, Oct. 21, to the Anglican church. Alternate years we go to the United church, thus pleasing all our members.—C.J.

Open Fall Program With Holiday Dance

Ray of Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 67, Bellevue, Alberta, opened the fall season with a dance on Labor Day. A large crowd attended and a nice amount was turned over to the treasurer.

On Sept. 11, we held our first fall meeting and discussed our activities for the fall season.

On Sept. 25, we initiated one and reinstated one, and a social tea was held after the meeting.

The district meeting was held in Coleman by Victoria No. 7, Oct. 16. Sister Neilson, P.G., conducted. Three car loads of Rebekahs from Bellevue attended. Sister McEachern gave the secret work and a team from Blairmore put on some of the lodge work. A grand banquet was served by the Coleman sisters.

On Oct. 24 the annual tea and bazaar was held in the I.O.O.F. hall. A nice display of home cooking and fancy work, given gratis by the lodge sisters, was sold during the afternoon.

On Oct. 26, the first bridge and whist drive took place. The sisters served refreshments.

The I.O.O.F. hall received a face lifting at the hands of G. K. Suett and his assistants. We all should feel more like working in a nice, clean, shining hall.

Our sister, Miss Elsie Brooks, is improving steadily in the Central Sanatorium.—E.E.S.

New Officers Named for Harmony Club

The Harmony Club of Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 25, I.O.O.F., Edmonton, held its annual meeting in the I.O.O.F. Temple, 112th Ave. and 95th St., when it was decided to carry on the whist drives. Sister H. Campbell, P.N.G., was elected president, Sister Esther Mitchell, P.N.G., vice-president, and Sister E. Penman, P.N.G., secretary. Sister E. Mitchell, retiring president, thanked the conveners and committees for making the whist drives successful, and also those who worked at the rummage sale, a tidy sum having been turned over to the building fund and the war work fund.

The first of the whist drives this fall was held in the Temple on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 3, and nineteen tables were in play. Sisters Mitchell, P.N.G., and Delaney convened, and Sister Campbell, president, and Sister Green-slade, Noble Grand of Jewel No. 25, received and welcomed the guests. The prize-winners were Mrs. E. Bowden, Sister Gibson of Jewel No. 25, and Sisters Morgan and Barber, also of Jewel No. 25.

The second whist drive was held on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 7, at which 12 tables were in play. Sister H. Campbell, P.N.G., and Sister C. Neumann, P.P., convened the affair, and Sister Esther Mitchell, P.N.G., and Sister Wallbank received and welcomed the guests.

Prizes were won by Miss R. Neill, Mrs. Hawkes and Sister C. Miller, P.N.G., Little Doreen Wallbank drew her mother's name for the attendance prize.

Afternoon tea was served by the committee in charge.

The final whist drive before Christmas will be held on Wednesday afternoon, December 5, when the aggregate prize will be drawn for.

Lodge Awaits Visit Assembly President

Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 12, Calgary, held its regular meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 26, Sister Urith Molyneux acting as Noble Grand.

We are all looking forward to a visit from our President, Mrs. Minnie Gilkes, in November.

We are happy to report three new applications by the deposit of card, from Sisters Mary McIntyre, Bertha A. Butler and Annie Flowers.

Naomi held its fall tea and bazaar in the Hudson's Bay Company store on Nov. 6.

Our sewing group has again started its fall meetings. This group has been doing some extremely fine work for our war effort and relief for sick children.

At the close of our meeting a splendid program was provided under the convenership of Sister Helen Dunker.

At the lodge's birthday party, 23 Sisters received gifts.—G.M.

Mizpah Rebekahs Plan Fall Program

The regular meeting of Mizpah Rebekah Lodge, Consort, was held October 9. Plans were made for the re-decoration of the lodge rooms at an early date. During the past month a rummage sale and supper was held from which was taken the sum of $52.65.

Our Red Cross teas were started again for the fall season, the first one having taken in the sum of $9.10.—V.M.H.

Lodge Decides to Buy Victory Bond

We were pleased to welcome back to Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 33, Ponoka, Sister E. Hickmore, P.N.G., and Sister G. King. Both of these sisters have missed lodge because of illness. We were sorry to hear that Sister and Bro. Craig were ill.

Five Dollars was voted to the Veterans' Poppy Fund.

The lodge decided to buy a Victory Bond and put on something at a later date to replenish our funds.

Sister E. Hickmore, P.N.G., who has worked very faithfully on the Veteran Jewel committee, resigned. Sister W. Watt, P.N.G., was appointed to assist Sister Goodman, V.P., on this committee.

The degree staff under the leadership of Sister Kolyak, P.N.G., and Sister M. Harman, P.N.G., put on the degree very beautifully. Sister Muriel Thumlert became a member of our lodge on October 26.

On November 2 over twenty of our members travelled north to Millet to the district meeting. After a very enjoyable meeting a delicious lunch was served.—Miss Hazel Cline.

19th Annual Meeting Rebekah District No. 2

On Friday evening, November 9th, the 19th annual district meeting of Rebekah District No. 2 was held during the regular meeting of Maple Leaf Rebekah Lodge No. 2.

Under "Good of the Order," Sister Johnston, N.G., requested the Assembly Grand Lodge and Grand Encampment officers, past and present, to retire. Sisters L. McKechnie and Morgan, P.N.G.'s, introduced the following: Sister Myrtle Cundal, D.D.P., District No. 2; Sisters Neumann, Moffatt, Martin, and Lake, Past Presidents of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta; Sister G. Hutchings, P.P. of Saskatchewan; Bro. A. Woodard, D.G.M.; Bro. McMasters, D.D.G.M., District No. 29; Bro. Manson, D.D.G.M., District No. 29; Bros. Brown, Campbell, Martin, Sorenson, and Young, all Past Grand Masters; Bro. Dawson, Past Grand Patriarch, Grand Encampment.

Sister Myrtle Cundal, D.D.P., was then escorted to the platform, and in a few well-chosen words welcomed the many visiting sisters and brothers to the 19th annual district meeting, and expressed pleasure in being able to officiate. Sister L. McKechnie then escorted Bro. A. Woodard, D.G.M., to the platform.

The meeting opened with the singing of one verse of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," followed by one minute's silence in memory of departed members.

Sister Cundal, D.D.P., then appointed her committees: Judiciary—Sister I. Foster, P.D.D.P. of Unity No. 26, and Sister E. Lepard, P.D.D.P. of Jewel No. 25; Finance—Sister J. Williston, P.N.G. of Princess No. 82, and Sister Rose Chambers of Onward No. 113.

Reports were then presented by the delegates of the five Rebekah lodges and showed much progress had been made in membership, and lodge work in general.

Sister Charlotte Martin, Past President, then gave a very timely talk, basing her remarks on the great need in the world today of Friendship, Love and Truth, and in carrying out the aims and objects of true Odd Fellowship whenever possible. Sister Martin concluded her talk by reading a poem entitled, "Just a Reminder," and very much enjoyed by those in attendance.

In the School of Instruction, Sister Margaret Davis, P.N.G. of Maple Leaf Rebekah Lodge No. 2, exemplified the obligation; Sister C. Neumann, P.P. of Jewel No. 25, gave instruction in the unwritten work, and Sister A. MacDonald, P.N.G., of Unity No. 26, exemplified working your way into a lodge after it is open and leaving before it is closed. Brother O. S. Martin was a very able assistant and provided much mirth in his humorous but none-the-less efficient manner.

Sister Cundal then expressed pleasure in being able to announce that Sister E. A. Douglas, P.N.G. of Jewel No. 25, had been elected to be recommended as the next D.D.P. It was regretted however, that owing to Sister Douglas' departure for the coast, she was unable to be introduced to the gathering.

Sister Connie Henderson, P.N.G. of Unity No. 26, was nominated and elected as secretary-treasurer for the succeeding year. Under Good of the Order, Sister L. McKechnie delighted the meeting with a solo, "If Winter Comes," and as an encore, "I'll Walk Beside You." Both were very much enjoyed.

Questions and Answers:

Should the Noble Grand call up the lodge, "members from other lodges being present" when the lodge in question is about to ballot on membership, by ball ballot, or should the N.G. and V.G. proceed to ballot first, then the N.G. give her instructions "the members will proceed to ballot commencing on my right and left?"

Answer:

Warden and Conductor stand, facing each other, about three feet back of altar in a position to allow only one member to approach altar at a time. N.G. says: Members of this lodge only respond to gavel (a courtesy to visiting members) and calls lodge up. N.G. and V.G. ballot first, when they return to their stations, the members to the Noble Grand's right and left proceed down sides of room and ballot alternately."

Brother Alfred Woodard, D.G.M., then addressed the meeting. The general theme of his talk was "What Has Odd Fellowship to Offer?" Bro. Woodard introduced many appropriate and timely illustrations of Odd Fellowship. He likened the Rebekah branch of the Order as to an annex on a building, without the annex the building could not serve its intended purpose, so it is with Odd Fellowship — we need the support and well-being of one another in order to carry out and promote the work of the Order. "Yes, Odd Fellowship has much to offer. Let us go forward in the spirit of good-will, ever mindful of the tasks which lie ahead."

In closing Sister Cundal thanked her lodge for the privilege of holding the 19th annual meeting, and to all those who assisted in making the meeting a success. Sister Cundal also expressed her pleasure at being the District Deputy President, stating she had enjoyed her term very much. The 19th annual district meeting was then closed with the singing of "Abide With Me."

At the conclusion of the evening refreshments were served by the committee of Maple Leaf Rebekah Lodge No. 2, under the joint convenership of Sisters Carmichael and Fleming, P.N.G.'s —C.E.H.

In the dim distant past when whiskey was served at the grocery or general store, Mrs. Murphy marched in and heaved her jug up on the counter with the request for a gallon of whiskey. The storekeeper remarked, "My goodness, Mrs. Murphy, 'tis just the other day you had a gallon of whiskey."

"Sure!" said the lady. "But what signifies a gallon of whiskey in a house where they haven't a cow?"
